V. RATE
1	After analysing the comparable sale instances, what is the composite rate for a similar flat with same specifications in the adjoining locality?
The estimate of Fair Market Value is based on situation, location, size, shape, road width, Neighborhood, accessibility, frontage, environmental aspects, demand and supply. The property rate is considered after information received by surrounding property holders. Also necessary information has been collected from nearby occupant. Our market inquiry among nearby occupant has revealed that similar sized property in the vicinity of the subject property is available in a range from ${marketRange} based on Carpet area.
